Dear Mr Balasundaram Iyer

I have just got the Copy of the letter from the Durbar — but as I am to proceed to Trichinopoly by S.M.O. this week absolutely necessary, — so will you please wait for them & return them as early as you possibly can without such order the S.M.O. has called send the usual military travelling forms for he must quote the number of the order on the travelling form

I am yours

TO General Secretary to Government Bangalore

Instruct Colonel Smyth to deliver charge to Armogam who is appointed officiating during absence on leave as follows

N. B.—The name of the Sender is telegraphed, in addition after the text.

Gulab Singh & Sons, Printers, Calcutta

Submitted to His Highness.

Col. Smyth has to be relieved at once as he is due in or has to start for Secunderabad on the 19th instant.

2. It is proposed to appoint Mr. P.S. Achyuta Rao to take his place as Senior Surgeon and Sanitary Commissioner. By long experience, success as a Medical Practitioner, and success in the administrative capacities in which he has been tried, he is eminently qualified for the post. But just at this moment he is not in a fit state of health to relieve Col. Smyth. Mr. T.V. Armugam Mudaliar, the next senior Medical Officer, may be appointed as Officiating Senior Surgeon and Sanitary Commissioner until Mr. Achyuta Rao is able to resume duty.

3. The accompanying draft Notification may be approved.
